

MUSIC & MANAGEMENT – Module 15

New way of Leadership and Team Building – live piano performance

An innovative and creative way of transforming music into management framework

What to expect

- ✓ Gain a deeper understanding of your roles and responsibilities
- ✓ Improve communication to effectively set expectations for yourself and your managerial skills
- ✓ Adapt your leadership style to meet the needs of individual team members
- ✓ Communicate organizational goals that get results
- ✓ Apply delegation strategies to increase productivity and motivation
- ✓ Use effective coaching techniques to maximize your team's performance

Module Content

Identify qualities and abilities required for effective management
Understand your role and responsibilities as manager
Learn to transition from individual contributor to manager
Know how to work effectively with a multigenerational workforce
Understand the nuances when managing remote teams and across the matrix
Connect key business principles like common sense, loyalty and logic
Expanding leadership mindset skills

Who should attend

- ✓ 1st level management
- ✓ 2nd level management
- ✓ Team leaders, supervisors and professionals with or without experience.
- ✓ Managers with 1 to 5 years of experience who are seeking additional management training

By live piano performance, Mr. Mihail Kitanovski from D2EM Consulting as an international business consultant presents the ability to develop leadership skills and/or to build more effective team, as well as how these characteristics should be implemented in real business world and communication processes.

D2EM Consulting deliver management consulting and training services for 700+ clients, in 30 countries for the past 20 years.

www.mihailkitanovski.online

